Dev Kumar

Software Engineer

Hi, I'm a second-year B.Tech (CSE-AI) student from SRM University, Chennai. I'm working towards my aim to be a professional IT support specialist. I have experience in Machine Learning and other software development projects. I'm one who always tries to grab opportunities to learn that fall in my way. I have worked on projects like Food Ordering App (Android), Face-Mask detection, Hand Written Digital Recognition Using ML, Auto Sudoku solver.
